Order thereon.

It is observed that out of the 21 candidates who applied for the Vidwat Exam^n in its various branches, six absented themselves, one failed and 14 passed

2. In regard to the rewards recommended Govt observe that it is now proposed to grant rewards to those who have passed in Part- I alone of the Examns in the various Shastras, excluding Vedanta, two thirds being given for part- I and the remaining one-third being reserved for presentation to the Candidates on their passing in part- II and thus completing the Examination. The existing practice of not-giving any reward for part- I of the Examination alone but of giving the entire reward on the completion of parts I and II, has the advantage of ensuring a candidate's completing his studies in the Shastra he has taken up. A proposal, however, to dividing the reward between parts I and II was made to the Govt in the Committee's Resolution dated 6th March 1900, received with the President's letter No. 31 of the 11th May 1900, but Government refrained from passing orders hitherto as the matter required consideration. In deference, however, to the Committee's present recommendation, Govt. are pleased to sanction the grant of rewards for passing in part I alone of the Exam^n in the Shastras but would restrict the reward to one-third of the total amount in each case instead of fixing it at two-thirds as recommended by the Committee. Similarly,

the rewards recommended in the case of those who have passed in Part I only of the Advaita Vedanta Examination will be reduced from two-thirds to one-third, the principle to be adopted in all cases being that, when an Examⁿ is to be passed in two parts, the reward for passing in one part alone is to be one-third of the total sum fixed, the remaining two thirds being given when the other part also is passed and the whole Examn is completed

3. A list of rewards framed in accordance with the above remarks is appended and the disbursement of the amount thereof, Viz - Rs 975/- is hereby sanctioned

4. The rewards of Rs 75/- each proposed to be given, without the test of an Examination to Pandits Subrahmanya Shastri of Varahur in the Tanjore Dt and Pandit Tirumala Bhattacharya
of Tirupati, N. Arcot Dt, for high proficiency in Vedanta are sanctioned in deference to the recommendation of the Committee, with the observation that the selection for such an honor should be based upon grounds of exceptionally high merit.
